Computer Engineering student

Dear Mr Choupina:

It is with great consideration that we salute you, and very kindly express our gratitude to you, for your contribution reporting a security vulnerability in the website `sep.biologia.ucr.ac.cr`, that belongs to the network of institutional sites of University of Costa Rica (UCR).

We appreciate all the information you gave to us to understand the SQL injection vulnerability, we reported it to the administrators so they can solve the security problem, and informed of similar issues in other websites in our network.

Best regards:

Wajina Sasa Marín
Director
Communications Office
Universidad de Costa Rica
