From: Kevin Shivers, Assistant Director, IT Security
Subject: Thank you to Paulo Choupina

The IT Security office at the Division of Information would like to thank Paulo Choupina for the responsible disclosure of two SQL injection vulnerabilities in departmental web applications along with information on how to reproduce the problem.

We always appreciate responsibly vulnerability disclosure notifications and work with the owners of impacted systems to understand the scope of the issue, ensure no data was breached, and resolve the issue.

Reports of suspected vulnerabilities are always welcome via security@umd.edu

Sincerely,
